

MAKE IT STICK

5 Simple Ways You Can Make This Lesson Stick With Your Kids

THIS WEEK'S LESSON: THE FIRST 5!

IN THE CAR:

Ask your child what they learned about this week on the drive home:

The first five books of the Bible tell us how the world began, what God expects of us (the law), and how God put a plan in action to set things right.

Genesis 17:1-8, God's Covenant with Abraham

HANGING OUT:

Make this week's lesson real:

Ask the kids to teach you the hand motions they learned to help them remember the first five books of the Bible.

AT DINNER:

Here are some great discussion starters:

- What are the first five books of the Bible about?
- What promise did God make to Abraham?
- What are the first five books?

AT BEDTIME:

Quiz your child on this week's memory verse:

"God has breathed life into all Scripture. It is useful for teaching us what is true. It is useful for correcting our mistakes. It is useful for making our lives whole again. It is useful for training us to do what is right." 2 Timothy 3:16 (NIRV)

PARENT TIME:

What you need to know:

The first five books of the Bible are books of history. Their story is just the beginning of the greater story of the Bible. Encourage your kids to practice reciting the book names, and spend some time reading from these books with them.
